A GOOD DEAL BETTER

Welcome to Direct Line Pet Insurance

Thank you for insuring your pet with us.

As long as you keep to the conditions of the insurance, we agree to provide you with one calendar month of cover for each monthly payment we receive from you from the start date of the insurance. If you miss a monthly payment or pay it late, we will assume you have cancelled this policy. All cover will then end from the date the premium was due.

This policy and the policy schedule are evidence of the contract between you (the policyholder) and us (Direct Line Insurance plc). Our contract with you is based on the information that was provided by you or on your behalf. You must tell us if this information is incorrect or if it changes. If you do not, it could affect your cover.

During any period of insurance, we will insure the pets named on the policy schedule for those sections listed on your policy schedule under the conditions set out in this policy. Any special excesses, limits or endorsements shown on the policy schedule or in a separate document also form part of the contract.

You must read the policy, policy schedule and any endorsements as one document. Any word or expression that is defined as having a particular meaning will have the same meaning wherever it appears in these documents. English law will apply to this insurance unless we agree otherwise in writing. Direct Line Insurance plc is authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

United Kingdom (UK)	England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.

General conditions

The following conditions apply to the whole of the policy.

- 1 Your pet must not be less than eight weeks old or older than the age set out in the policy schedule on the start date of the insurance.
- 2 Your pet must be in good health on the start date of the insurance. If covered to go on a journey (travel overseas cover – section 8), your pet must be in good health and fit to travel at the start of your journey.
- 3 You and your pet's main home must be in the United Kingdom. If travelling on a journey, your pet must not have been outside the qualifying countries included in the Pet Travel Scheme in the six months immediately before the start of your journey.
- 4 Your pet must not fall under the restrictions of the Dangerous Dogs Act 1991, the Dogs (Northern Ireland) Order 1983, or any changes to those laws.
- 5 You must take proper care of your pet at all times and pay to have any treatment normally recommended by a vet to prevent illness or injury.
- 6 Your pet must wear a collar that shows details that will allow you to be reunited with your pet whether in the United Kingdom or on a journey.
- 7 Wherever possible you must contact us before any costs for which you may wish to claim arise.
- 8 You must provide and pay for all the information, documents and help that we need. This includes vet certificates and records and details of any other relevant insurance that may apply.
- 9 If we ask you to take your pet to a vet of our choice, you must do so.
- 10 If there is any disagreement between your vet and our vet, an independent vet that we and you agree to will be appointed and act as arbiter to settle the dispute. We and you must keep to their decision.
- 11 If you or anyone acting on your behalf makes a false, fraudulent or exaggerated claim, or any claim involving dishonesty, we will reject your claim and cancel this policy immediately.
- 12 If you fail to keep to the conditions of this insurance, all cover may be invalid from the start date of the insurance.
- 13 We may take over and deal with in your name any claim made under this policy.
- 14 We will only refund your premium if you let us know that you do not need cover within 14 days of receiving the policy and no claims have been made.

- 15 We will cancel your cover if you do not pay your premium.
 - 16 We may change any details relating to your policy and premium on each anniversary date of the start of your insurance policy and your pets claims history may be taken into account.
 - 17 You agree that we may see all the records that any vet has about your pet.
 - 18 We may release information about your pet insurance policy to any vet who has either treated your pet or is about to treat your pet.
 - 19 We may end this insurance at any time by sending at least seven days' written notice to your last known address.
 - 20 We will not make any payment for any claim that results from an incident covered by other insurance.
 - 21 It is your responsibility to check the accuracy of all information provided on or with a claim form by a vet or anyone else.
 - 22 You may cancel this policy at any time by contacting us at the address shown on your schedule. Your policy will continue until your next direct debit is due and will be cancelled from the end of that period of insurance and cover will end.

If you have overseas travel cover (section 8), the following will also apply.

- 23 Your pet must not work on a journey (other than as a registered guide dog or hearing dog) unless we have agreed to this in writing.
- 24 If you are travelling on a journey with your pet, you must meet all the conditions of the Pet Travel Scheme. This includes, but is not limited to, having a current pet passport for your pet and any other documents needed under the Pet Travel Scheme.
- 25 You must not make more than three journeys (and of no more than 30 days each) in a policy period, unless we agree to this in writing.

General exclusions

The following exclusions apply to the whole policy.

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 Any claims under any section of the policy where the premium has not been paid.
- 2 Any claim for or in connection with any illness or disease arising during the first 14 days of your pet being covered.
- 3 Any claim that is in any way connected with a pre-existing condition.
- 4 Any claim as a result of a condition that a routine vaccination is available for, unless treatment is needed because the vaccine has not worked.
- 5 Any claim that is in any way linked to vicious tendencies or behavioural problems your pet showed signs of before cover started.
- 6 Any indirect loss, unless specifically covered by the policy, including but not limited to the cost of transporting your pet to a vet, loss of earnings due to time off work or the cost of pet mobility aids.
- 7 Any claim as a result of a malicious act, deliberate injury or negligence.
- 8 Any claim where your pet has been used for commercial, guard, breeding, security or working purposes, or for racing.
- 9 Any claim as a result of your pet worrying livestock.
- 10 Any loss where United Kingdom animal health or import laws have been broken.
- 11 Any claim where your pet is destroyed under a court order or is destroyed or injured by someone acting with the legal power to do so.
- 12 Any claim as a result of radioactive contamination, terrorism, war or riot.
- 13 Any claim caused by or in any way related to a condition that is excluded either on your policy schedule or in a separate endorsement letter.
- 14 Any costs that we do not consider reasonable or necessary.
- 15 Any claim as a result of the official actions of customs, any government or the authorities of any country, unless specifically covered.
- 16 Any claim as a result of a disease that should be reported to an authority such as, but not limited to, Rabies.

Section I

Vet fees

17 Any claim as a result of travel outside of the United Kingdom, unless you have overseas travel cover (section 8) under this policy, in which case we will not pay for any claim as a result of travel outside the qualifying countries covered by the Pet Travel Scheme.

18 More than the maximum amounts shown in each section, including VAT where this is payable.

If you have overseas travel cover (section 8), we will not pay for the following.

19 Any claim as a result of you failing to meet any of the conditions of the Pet Travel Scheme. This applies to conditions set by the UK Government, a carrier or other countries involved in the scheme.

20 Any costs that the carrier may charge to carry out checks.

21 Your costs in meeting the conditions of the Pet Travel Scheme, unless they are specifically covered in this policy.

22 You to bring your pet home if it dies.

23 Any loss as a result of currency exchanges.

We will refund vet's fees that you have to pay for treatment or complementary therapy for your pet for a condition that first started during a period of insurance, under the following conditions.

- 1 The most we will pay for each condition is £4,000.
- 2 Each condition is only covered for 12 months immediately following the first date of treatment.
- 3 We will not pay more than the maximum limit or limits that applied to the month during which the condition first started subject to cover still being in force.
- 4 If two or more claims are first believed to be separate conditions but we later consider them to be a recurring condition or related condition, we will add up the amounts we have paid for all these claims and not make any more payments during the life of your pet once we have paid up to the limits described in 1, 2 and 3 above.
- 5 You must pay the excess shown on your policy schedule for each claim you make that relates to a different condition.

Exclusions

We will not pay the following.

- 1 For any treatment or complementary therapy your pet receives during a period of insurance if we have not received the agreed premium for that period of insurance.
- 2 For any preventative or non-essential treatment, tests or diagnostic procedures, prescribed general health supplements, routine examinations or tests, bathing or de-matting.
- 3 For any treatment costs that, as a pet owner, you would normally expect to pay, such as (but not limited to) vaccinations, flea treatment, wormers, nail clipping, spaying and castration.
- 4 For any treatment that is in any way connected with your pet being pregnant or giving birth.
- 5 For house calls or out-of-hours calls, or for your pet to stay at the vets, unless the vet can confirm that it was absolutely essential and that not taking such action would have seriously worsened your pet's condition.
- 6 The cost of having your pet put to sleep (euthanasia) or cremated, or for disposing of your pet's remains.
- 7 For treatment of behavioural problems, training or therapy, or for any conditions arising as a result of behavioural problems.
- 8 The cost of any diet food, even if this has been prescribed to treat a condition.
- 9 The cost of any treatment to, or related to, teeth or gums unless:
 - a following accidental external damage;
 - b an illness or disease has been proved to have been the direct cause of the tooth or gum problem; or
 - c to remove first teeth after your pet is more than six months old, and as long as your pet was covered by this policy before it was 16 weeks old.
- 10 For any condition or treatment arising as a result of tooth or gum disease.
- 11 The cost of routine or investigative tests, unless these are to diagnose a condition due to specific existing symptoms or clinical signs.
- 12 For the treatment of any condition or symptoms first starting or caught while on a journey, unless overseas travel cover (section 8) was included in your policy at that time and continues to be included.

Section 2

Death from accidental injury

- 13 For any form of housing (such as a cage or basket) or bedding, whether bought or hired.
 - 14 For any referral, second opinion or specialist treatment or fees, unless we have specifically agreed to it.
 - 15 For any treatment for a condition if:
 - a you have not told us about the condition within three months of your pet's first treatment for the condition; or
 - b a claim has not been made within 12 months of your pet's first treatment for the condition.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 We must receive a fully filled-in claim form before we are able to settle a claim. Please make sure your vet is happy to fill in part of the form and provide us with any information we may need.
- 2 You must keep all invoices and receipts that your vet gives you in connection with your claim and send these to us with your claim form. To speed up any illness claims, please send in a complete medical history for your pet.
- 3 We may need a vet's opinion on what may be wrong with the pet before we can pay a claim.

We will pay you the purchase price of your pet, as shown on your policy schedule, if it dies during a period of insurance following an accidental injury to the outside of its body.

Exclusions

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 If your pet has been put to sleep following an accidental injury, unless your vet provides written certification that this was essential for humane reasons.
- 2 More than you paid for your pet.
- 3 Unexpected or sudden death that cannot be proved to have arisen from an accidental injury to the outside of the pet's body.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 You must provide proof of what you paid for your pet.
- 2 You must provide us with certification from a vet, or if the pet has died at the scene of the accident a statement from an independent witness, that your pet has died as a result of an external accidental injury.

Section 3

Advertising and reward

We will pay you up to £1,000 in any policy period towards local advertising expenses you have to pay to help you get your pet back if it is stolen or strays during a period of insurance. This includes the cost of getting your pet back to your home address and a reward of up to £200.

Exclusions

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 Any reward claimed by a member of your family or anyone living with you.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 If your pet is a dog, you must report the loss to your local authority and welfare centres (in Scotland this must be reported to the police) and we will need to see evidence that you have done this. If your pet is a cat, you should report the loss to your vet and we may ask for confirmation that you have done so.
- 2 If you are claiming for paying a reward, we will need evidence that a reward for finding your pet was advertised and written confirmation with full contact details from the person claiming the reward that this has been paid to them by you. Or, if you prefer, we can pay the reward directly to them.
- 3 We will need to see receipts and examples of advertising for any expenses you want to claim.

Section 4

Loss of pet from theft or straying

We will pay you the purchase price shown in the policy schedule if your pet is stolen or goes missing during a period of insurance and has not been found within 45 days.

Exclusions

We will not:

- 1 pay more than you paid for your pet; or
- 2 make any payment until more than 45 days after your pet first went missing.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 If your pet is a dog, you must report the loss to your local authority and welfare centres (in Scotland this must be reported to the police) within two days of your dog going missing and we will need to see evidence that you have done this. If your pet is a cat, you must report the loss to your vet and local rescue centres within 10 days of your cat going missing and we will need to see confirmation that you have done so.
- 2 You must provide proof of what you paid for your pet.
- 3 If after claiming your pet is found or has returned, you must repay us the full amount we have paid out under this section of cover.

Section 5

Boarding fees if you have to stay in hospital

We will pay up to £1,000 in any policy period towards costs you have to pay to have your pet looked after by a licensed kennel, cattery or pet-minding service if you have to go into hospital for more than four days in a row during a period of insurance.

Exclusions

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 Costs if you knew on the start date of the insurance that you were likely to need to go into hospital.
- 2 Costs as a result of any hospital stay that is not on the advice of a doctor, specialist or consultant.
- 3 Costs as a result of nursing-home care or convalescence care that you do not receive in a hospital.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 You must keep all receipts from the boarding kennel, cattery or person responsible for looking after your pet, showing the dates and your expenses, and send these to us with your claim form.
- 2 You must get confirmation from your doctor or the hospital treating you of the dates of your hospital stay and the condition that led to this.

Section 6

Holiday cancellation cover

We will pay you up to £5,000 in any policy period for expenses that you cannot get back from anywhere else if you have to cancel your holiday or for extra expenses to get you home if you cut short your holiday during a period of insurance because your pet:

- a goes missing while you are away or in the seven-day period before you go away; or
- b needs sudden and unexpected life-saving treatment (without which your pet would die) while you are away or in the seven-day period before you go away.

Exclusions

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 For any claim resulting from a condition that you were aware of before booking your holiday.
- 2 For any claim if treatment could have been provided eight days or more before you were due to go away and by having that treatment the life-saving treatment could have been avoided.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 You must send us documents that prove you booked and then cancelled or cut short your holiday, and the dates this happened.
- 2 You must send us documents that show the expenses you have paid. You must be able to prove that you cannot get these back from anywhere else.

Section 7

Third party liability cover – Applies to dogs only

In this section, 'you' and 'your' mean you or any person looking after or handling your pet with your permission or knowledge.

We will pay up to £2 million in any policy period, towards compensation and costs awarded against you by a court and, if we agree, the legal costs and expenses for defending a claim against you, if as a result of an accidental incident involving your pet during a period of insurance:

- 1 property is damaged; or
- 2 a person suffers an injury or dies.

Exclusions

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 The first £250 of each claim for property damage.
- 2 If you have cover under any other insurance policy (such as home insurance), unless the cover provided by that policy has been used up.
- 3 For any compensation, costs or expenses for injury or death to you, any member of your family, anyone who lives with you or anyone working with you or for you.
- 4 For any compensation, costs or expenses that result because of damage to property belonging to you or any member of your family, or anyone who lives with you, works with you or works for you.
- 5 For any compensation, costs or expenses if you, any member of your family, person living with you, working with you or working for you is either responsible for or is looking after the property that is damaged.
- 6 For any compensation, costs or expenses that result due to your profession, business or employment.
- 7 For any compensation, costs or expenses if we have not agreed to these before they arose.

Special conditions relating to claims under this section

- 1 You must not admit responsibility or make any offer or promise of payment without our permission in writing.
- 2 You must tell us about any incident that happens that could result in a claim.
- 3 You must send us any writ, summons, legal documents or other communication you receive immediately.
- 4 You must not reply to any communication you receive without our permission.
- 5 You must find out whether there is any other insurance policy available under which you could claim.

Section 8

Overseas travel cover

Part A

This part of this section extends cover to sections 1 to 7, if they appear on your policy schedule, to provide cover for you and your pet while on a journey. Some extra cover, exclusions and special conditions relating to claims apply. These are below, and you should read them with the sections to which they relate.

Extra cover to section 1 – vet fees cover

- 1 If a vet decides your pet should be put to sleep while it is on a journey, we will pay up to £200 towards the cost of putting it to sleep, cremating it or disposing of its remains.

Extra special conditions relating to claims under section 1 – vet fees cover

- 1 If you are on a journey, you must get the vet to fill in a claim form before you return to the United Kingdom. You must also keep all relevant receipts and pass them on to us to support your claim.
- 2 We may ask you to provide evidence that your pet was in good health and fit to travel at the start of the journey.
- 3 If you are claiming for having your pet put to sleep, we will need to see evidence from the vet that this was essential.

Extra exclusion to section 3 – advertising and reward

- 1 We will not pay for any reward claimed by anyone travelling on a journey with you.

Extra special condition relating to claims under section 3 – advertising and reward

- 1 If you lose your pet on a journey, you must report the loss to the governing body or organisation in the country where your pet goes missing. If you make a claim, we will need to see written evidence that you have done this.

Extra exclusion to section 5 – boarding fees if you have to stay in hospital

- 1 We will not pay for costs if you knew you were likely to need to go into hospital before starting a journey.

Extra special condition relating to claims under section 5 – boarding fees if you have to stay in hospital

- 1 While on a journey, you must make sure you get evidence of your hospital stay before leaving the country.

Extra cover to section 6 – holiday cancellation cover

Cover is extended to cover you if you need to cut short your journey because your pet dies while on a journey, or cancel your holiday within seven days of your planned departure date because your pet becomes too ill to travel on a journey.

Extra special condition relating to claims under section 6 – holiday cancellation cover

- 1 If you cancel your journey because your pet is too ill to travel, you must support your claim with written evidence from a vet.

Extra exclusions relating to section 7 – third-party liability cover

- 1 We will not pay for any compensation, costs or expenses for injury or death to anyone travelling on a journey with you or staying with you during a journey.
- 2 We will not pay for any compensation, costs or expenses if the property damaged belongs to anyone travelling on a journey with you or staying with you during a journey.
- 3 We will not pay for any compensation, costs or expenses if you or anyone you are travelling on a journey with, or staying with during a journey, is responsible for or looking after the property that is damaged.

- 4 We will not pay any compensation, costs or expenses if these arise because you are responsible under the laws of the USA or Canada.

Part B

This part of this section provides extra cover if you are travelling on a journey.

Quarantine costs

We will pay up to £1,500 in any policy period towards the cost of:

- 1 quarantine kennelling and costs involved in getting a new pet passport for your pet if a microchip of ISO Standard 11784 or Annex A to ISO Standard 11785 fails; or
- 2 quarantine kennelling if you have obeyed all the rules of the Pet Travel Scheme but your pet still has to go into quarantine because of illness.

Exclusions to quarantine costs

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 For fees if the microchip was not checked and found to be working properly within 14 days of your departure on a journey.

- 2 For any fees as a result of a condition that you were aware of before the start of the journey.

Special conditions relating to claims for quarantine costs

- 1 You must support your claim with documents to prove that your pet was microchipped before your journey with a microchip of ISO Standard 11784 or Annex A to ISO Standard 11785 and that this was checked within 14 days of you travelling on a journey.
- 2 You must keep all documents and receipts showing the dates and expenses you had to pay, and send these to us to support your claim.

If you lose your pet's passport

We will pay up to £250 in any policy period towards the cost of a replacement pet passport if you lose your original pet passport during a journey. This includes any quarantine costs as a direct result of you losing your pet's passport.

Exclusions to losing your pet's passport

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 Any claim unless you report the loss of the pet passport to the vet who provided it within 24 hours of discovering its loss.

- 2 For any damage, loss or theft that happens before the start of your journey.

Special condition relating to claims for losing your pet's passport

- 1 You must provide documents and receipts to support your claim.

Repeat tick and worming treatment

We will pay reasonable fees charged by a vet if your carrier delays your departure for the United Kingdom and you have to get repeat tick and worming treatment for your pet.

Exclusions to repeat tick and worming treatment cover

We will not pay for the following.

- 1 For any costs involved in getting the first tick and worming treatment needed under the Pet Travel Scheme on each journey.
- 2 Any costs if the first tick and worming treatment done (on each journey) was not carried out in the timescale needed under the Pet Travel Scheme.
- 3 For any costs if the tick and worming treatment was not necessary under the Pet Travel Scheme.

Special conditions relating to claims under the repeat tick and worming treatment cover

- 1 You must support your claim with documents to prove that the original tick and worming treatment was carried out and that this was done in the timescale needed under the Pet Travel Scheme.
- 2 You must support your claim with documents to prove that the tick and worming treatment was needed under the Pet Travel Scheme.

Emergency expenses abroad

We will pay up to £300 for each journey towards the following.

- 1 Reasonable accommodation expenses and expenses to take you and your pet home if your pet needs emergency treatment from a vet and, as a result of this, you miss your return travel to the United Kingdom.
- 2 Reasonable accommodation and transport costs for up to four days to look for your pet if your pet is lost or strays during a journey and within three days of the date you are due to return to the United Kingdom.

- 3 Reasonable extra expenses to take you home if your pet is lost or strays within the three days before you are due to return to the United Kingdom and you decide to stay abroad to try to find your pet.
- 4 Reasonable accommodation expenses and expenses to take you and your pet home if you miss your departure to the United Kingdom as a direct result of losing your pet's passport.
- 5 Reasonable accommodation expenses and expenses to take you and your pet home if the carrier delays your departure for the United Kingdom and you miss your rearranged departure as a direct result of having to get repeat tick and worming treatment.

Special conditions relating to claims for emergency expenses abroad

- 1 You must support your claim with documents to show the amounts and dates of any expenses, and that these were both necessary and covered by this policy.
- 2 We may ask you to prove that the extra expenses were reasonable.

What to do if you need to make a claim

If you need to make a claim or need advice on any related matter, please call our Claims Hotline on 0845 246 8496.

Please keep all receipts and invoices that you want to claim for, and send them to us with your filled-in claim form and any other documents to support your claim.

For more help and information, please see the special conditions relating to claims under each section of your policy.

Helplines

At Direct Line we care about people as well as pets. So as well as providing insurance, we're pleased to offer you access to three pet advice lines – 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

To contact any of these three advice lines at any time, just call our assistance partners on 0870 600 0633. All calls will be treated in confidence and you may call any time and as many times as you like.

Find a vet

If for some reason you cannot contact your usual vet, or you and your pet are away from home and need a vet, if you are in the United Kingdom you can call this advice line for help. Our advisers can provide you with details of a vet's practice near to you.

Pet bereavement counselling

It can sometimes be difficult to come to terms with the loss of a much-loved pet. We provide a service staffed by professionals, who can offer confidential counselling, advice and emotional support.

Legal advice line

Owning a pet involves many other responsibilities. Your policy gives you access to practical legal advice on any personal problem, whether or not it relates to an incident or issue involving your pet. Our legal professionals are available to explain complicated legal issues in plain language and in a helpful and friendly way.

The vet, bereavement and legal helpline cannot deal with any policy or claims queries.
